

STUDIO POLICY

Welcome to Lily Wong's flute studio! Lessons are weekly and repertoire is tailored to the individual needs of each student. The goal for our time in lessons is to check your current level and design a practice program that can help you reach your goals.

Expectations

For every lesson you will need: your instrument, your assigned music, a notepad, and a pencil. I also suggest bringing a water bottle.

I expect students to show up on time, ready to learn. We will create a personalized practice program with clear goals together, although I generally recommend practicing lesson materials a minimum of 20 minutes a day for beginning students, 45 minutes a day for intermediate students, and 60+ minutes a day for advanced students.

Members of the flute studio will also participate in their district's Solo-Ensemble festival!

Attendance Policies

Students should aim to attend every lesson in the month. In the event that you are unable to make your lesson due to illness or an emergency, please let me know as soon as possible. Students showing signs of illness, such as fever, cough, or sore throat, should plan to reschedule their lesson and stay home. It is difficult to learn while toughing it out, and we need to respect the health of other students and myself.

I should be notified of a planned absence, such as a vacation or scheduling conflict, prior to the first lesson of the month and you will not be billed for that lesson. For an unplanned absence due to illness or emergency, notify me as soon as possible. Lessons missed for illness or emergency should be rescheduled before the end of the month. If I am not contacted or we are unable to reschedule within the month, the lesson fee is forfeit. In the event that I am ill or otherwise unable to make it to lesson, your fee will be credited to the next month.

Lesson Fees

For beginners: $25/30 minute lesson, $100/month for four lessons.

For intermediate and advanced: $50/55 minute lesson, $200/month for four lessons.

Lesson fees for the whole month are due on the first lesson of the month and are nonrefundable. Payment not received by then will be subject to a $15 late fee.

Thank you for reviewing the studio policy. I look forward to making music with you!
